Lime Combats Tuberculosis "It is difficult to escape the conviction that lime starvation and lime naimilation are the real issues bebind the masks of vulnerability and resistance in tuberculosis," writes ira Van Gleson, M. D., in the May 11, 1912, issue of the New York

Medical Record." "Medical Record."

Dr. Van Gieson is eminent in his profession, and his assertion that lime assimilation is the "real issue" in resistance to tuberculosis bears the stamp of authority.

Ordinarily lime is not easily assimilated medicinally, but Eckman's Alterative is one preparation containing it in such form and combination as to insure assimilation by the average person.

average person.

This is one reason for its success in many cases of tuberculosis which apparently have yielded to it and others which have been benefited through its use.

Our experience-based faith in this remedy is shared by a large number of men and women, who say they owe health, strength and life to it. It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, so is safe to try.

BELGIANS REPULSE A FURIOUS ATTACK

Retain Famous Dixmude Mysteria's modus operandi guarded, it contest. Bridgehead, Scene of Many Desperate Conflicts.

FURNES, Belgium, August 17, via Paris, August 18 .- The famous bridgehead at Dixmude, thrice lost and thrice the adjoining ground, but the Belgians have clung to the position approached by the bridge since October, warding off incessant German attacks and enduring a daily shelling. The Germans, attracted by the exposed Belgian position, frequently have attacked in mass formation, and it is estimated they los 3,000 men there from last October to August 1.

Shelled Every Evening.

After three attempts the Germans had abandoned direct efforts to occupy the trenches, but kept up a fire from three sides. Every evening, at the hour of relief, German field guns and gatlings played on the position and the communicating trenches; every evening a few Belgians fell, in coming or going, and remained on the ground until a convenient opportunity came to re move them.

The position was useless in the absence of a general attack, but it had cost so much the Belgians held on the left. cost so much the Belgians held on. Machine guns were posted on the left bank with several batteries of three-inchers behind them.

In Wait for Germans.

At the hour of relief last evening no relief was sent, but the occupying detachment evacuated the trenches un der the protection of artillery and ma chine guns. Then the gunners waited for the attack which came in the early morning. The Germans were permitted ing Lon Hascall, Eileen Sheridan, to advance four deep without molestafour deep without molesta ion until they came within range of tion until they came within range of the machine guns, which then opened fire, supported by the three-inchers. Most of the attacking force fell be-fore they reached the trench of the bridgehead, and the Belgian guns had the range so well that those who got into the trenches were obliged to

TRIP FROM COAST TO COAST.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stewart Con-

clude California Outing. William B. Stewart, an employe of the Senate finance committee, and Mrs Stewar's have just returned from a trip which carried them from coast to coast They left Washington June 3 for San Francisco, where Mr. Stewart attended the convention of the railway mail service, to which he was a delegate. Three weeks were spent in California, visiting the expositions at San Francisco and San Diego. Oakland, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles also were visited. They seturned to New York by steamship, via the Panama canal the voyage consuming eighteen days. A stop was made at Panama, where Mr. Stewart visited Gen.' Clarence R. Edwards. The passage through the canal was halted for a short time by reason of a slide. After a delay of a day the obstruction was dredged out and the steamship, the Finland, was able to continue on its way.

On their way west Mr. and Mrs. Stewart visited friends in Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago. They also stopped at several points in Canada.

Mr. Stewart injured his foot slightly while aboard the steamer and is now confined temporarily to his home.

GOOD DEMAND FOR MELONS.

Wharf Receipts Are Light and Crop May Show Falling Off.

Receipts of watermelons at the 11th street wharf market have been light n the past two or three days, two or three vessels only having arrived in the past twenty-four hours. This morning, the dealers stated, there were about 15,000 or 18,000 melons aboard the vessels lying at the wharf, and they were selling at from $3 to $18 per hundred. The demand for the fruit is reported ex-

Reports received from the melon-growing country on each side of Chesapeake bay state that there are still many melons in the country, but that they are ripening slowly. Recent heavy storms of hall that swept across the melon-growing section are reported to have done considerable damage to the crops and there will be a considerable falling off in the receipts of melons this season from the estimates of the crop received by the dealers about the time the season opened.

E. Ansley have qualified.

Stella Mayhew, aided by Billie Taylor, will be linked in stellar honors with Joe Jackson, the so-called "European vagabond," at the B. F. Keith Theater next week, the fifty-second and last of the summer season of 1914-1915. Other numbers will be Clarence Oliver and numbers will be Clarence Oliver and Georgie Olp, in "The Wall Between"; Carl Byal and Dora Early, Ann Sutor, comedienne; Francis Bent, in a travel-ogue on South America and Mexico; Eddie Emerson and Jerry Baldwin, Joking jugglers: the four Danubes, casting marvels; the pipe organ recitals and the Pathe weekly news pictorial. Au-gust 30 the fall season opens with Gertrude Hoffman and sixty players in "Sumurun," in eight scenes, with special orchestra.

Lew Kelly and the Behman Show.

Jack Singer's Behman Show is announced as the attraction at the Gayety Theater next week, commencing with a Monday matinee. It comes here bearing the stamp of approval of New York and Broadway audiences through the medium of a sixteen-week engagement at the Columbia Theater there. The management of the Gayety gives assurance that the organization is identically the same as appeared on Broadway. The company is headed by Lew Kelly as the star, and supporting him there are almost two-score of burlesque favorites, includ-Van. James Tenbrooke and Ameta Pynes The performance includes a one-act bur-lesque entitled "The Dope's Legacy," and a one-act travesty on "Shenandoah." In a one-act travesty on "Shenandoah." In addition there are many specialties, in-cluding an impersonation of Julian El-tinge by Martello. Another is a Charlie Chaplin burlesque in which an octet of dancing "ponies" assists Harry Van. #### Cosmos.

An all-new bill, headed by the Moskovia Balalaika Orchestra, with a new repertoire and the dance spectacle of Mile. Olga and M. Nicolai, will be presented at the Cosmos Theater for the last half of the week, beginning with the matinees tomorrow. Especial stress is laid by the management upon the fact that the Russian orchestra will be heard in an entirely new program of Russian and other classics, in which their famous instrument, the balalaika, will be featured. The other offerings will include Lucile Savoy in unique song and scenic poses; Keefe Langdon and Wheeler, harmonic singers, with a vein of quiet but enjoyable comedy; Baby Esmonde, a talented child actress, who won fame in the "movies" and is now presenting a neat offering of songs, dances and comedy monologue in vaudeville; Billy Barlow Hungarian embassy. A huge demonstration has been arranged for the evening by the combined Austro-Hungarian organizations of the city.

Every Austrian soldier in the field will be reminded of the emperor's birthday by receiving an individual gift. To purchase the presents the bureau of war support at Vienna recently appropriated several hundred thousand kronen (a kronen is 20 cents) and this fund has been augmented by enormous private contributions. Thirteen freight cars loaded with gifts already are on their way to the front. other entertainment.

Film Features.

Columbia.

Following "Nearly a Lady," in which Elsie Janis will be seen on the screen of the Columbia Theater the last three days of this week, Marguerite Clark will be seen in "Helene of the North," which will be the attraction the first four days of the week, starting Sunday afternoon. The story is described as afternoon. The story is described as the blending of the rugged icebound American northland and the luxuriant drawing rooms of exclusive Europe. The last three days of the week will mark the debut of Miss Fanny Ward, who will be remembered for her work in "Madam President." "The Marriage of Kitty" will serve as her first starring vehicle in the realm of the photoplay.

Crandall's.

A return engagement of the modern society drama based on the novel "Dr. Rameau" is announced as the first attraction next week, as the feature photoplay of Sunday's program at Crandall's. Frederick Perry has the title role, supported by Dorothy Bernard, Graham Velsey, Edith Haller, Stuart Holmes, Jean Southern and George Alison. Monday a picture with Miss Vivian Martin in "The Little Dutch Girl" is billed as the head-Little Dutch Girl" is billed as the head-liner. Tuesday and Wednesday Hobart Bosworth and Jane Novak will be the featured stars in a five-part drama, "The Scarlet Sin." Thursday, Friday and Sat-urday Theda Bara will appear in the photo-dramatic success, "Lady Audley's Secret." In the support of Miss Bara there appear Clifford Bruce, Stephen Grattan, William Riley Hatch, Warner Richmond, Frazer Coulter, Catherine Adams and others. Musical concerts will be featured on every program.
